E-services, company mandate and mandate theme

- Log in to the e-services as a private individual.
- To use the e-service on behalf of the company, both the company's mandate and the correct mandate theme must be in order (Applying for subsidies).
- Please note that private entrepreneurs also need to grant themselves a mandate to do business on behalf of their company.

E-services, company mandate

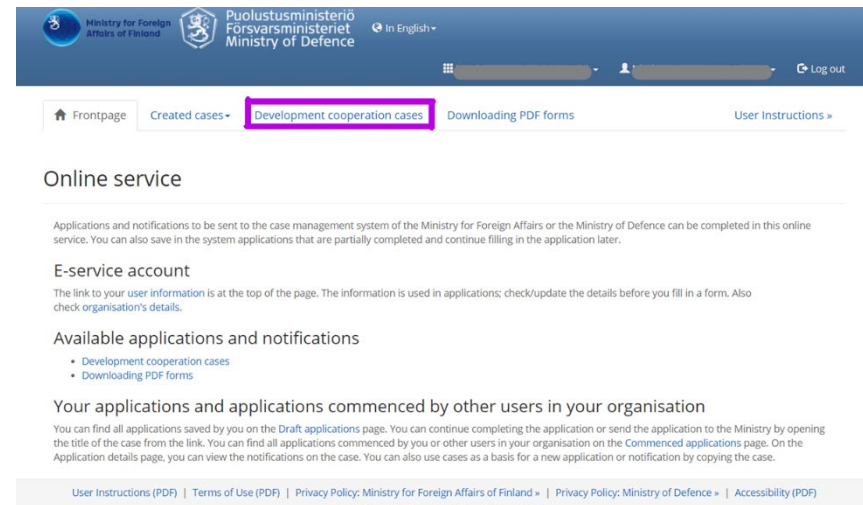

1. Ensure that “Select an organisation” is visible to the left of the user in the e-service.
 - If the field is visible, select the company you are doing business on behalf of under it.
 - If the field is not visible, the company has not yet mandated the person to do business on its behalf. In this event, the mandate needs to be given in the Suomi.fi service.

E-services, mandate theme

2. Once you have selected the organisation you are acting on behalf of, ensure that the “Development cooperation cases” tab is visible.

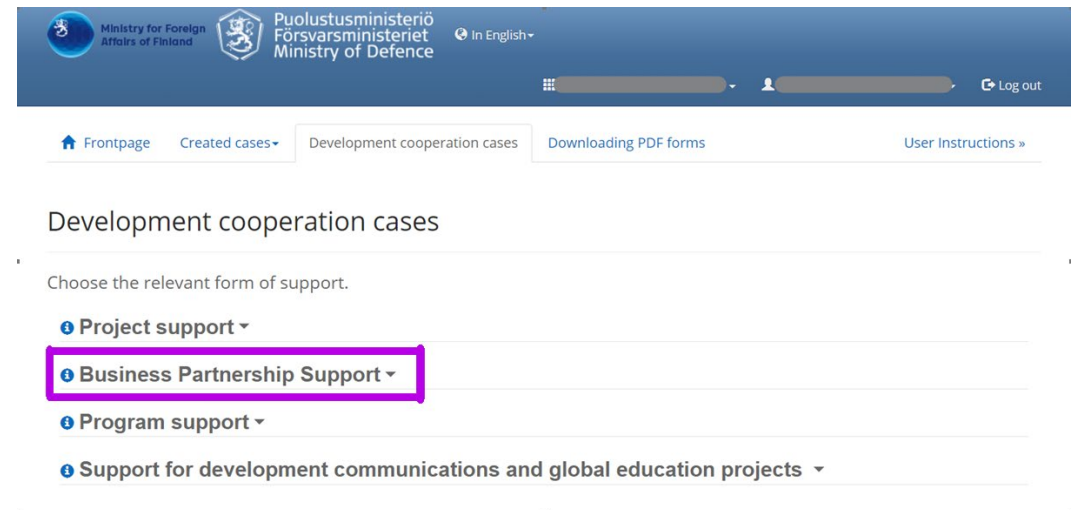

- If the tab is visible, the mandate theme is in order.
- If the tab is not visible, the company also needs to give you the correct mandate theme (Applying for subsidies and, separately, Mandate). The mandate theme is given in the Suomi.fi service.

E-services, development cooperation cases

3. Click the “Development cooperation cases” tab.

- A list of the development cooperation instruments of the Ministry of Foreign Affairs will appear.

The screenshot shows the Finnpartnership website interface. At the top, there is a header with logos for the Ministry for Foreign Affairs of Finland and the Ministry of Defence, along with a language selector set to 'In English' and a 'Log out' button. Below the header is a navigation bar with tabs: 'Frontpage', 'Created cases', 'Development cooperation cases' (which is active), 'Downloading PDF forms', and 'User Instructions »'. The main content area is titled 'Development cooperation cases' and contains the instruction 'Choose the relevant form of support.' Below this, there is a list of four options, each with a blue circular icon and a dropdown arrow: 'Project support', 'Business Partnership Support' (highlighted with a red rectangular box), 'Program support', and 'Support for development communications and global education projects'.

E-services, business partnership support

4. Select the correct support type, “Business partnership support”, under which the instructions for filling in different forms will open.

Choose the relevant form of support.

Basic information sheet, draft applications

You can complete a saved unfinished form with the following steps:

1. Click on the “Created cases” dropdown menu, then select “Draft applications”.

The screenshot shows the top navigation bar of the Ministry of Foreign Affairs and the Ministry of Defence. The bar includes logos for both ministries, a language selector set to 'In English', and a user profile dropdown with a 'Log out' button. Below the navigation bar is a menu with 'Frontpage', 'Created cases' (highlighted with a red box), 'Development cooperation cases', 'Downloading PDF forms', and 'User Instructions »'. The main content area is titled 'Online service' and contains three sections: 'Applications and notifications to be sent to the case management system...', 'E-service account' (with a link to user information), and 'Available applications and notifications' (with links to development cooperation cases and downloading PDF forms). The final section is 'Your applications and applications commenced by other users in your organisation', which provides instructions on how to find and manage draft applications.

Basic information sheet, attachments and approval

- The following should be attached to the Basic Information Sheet:
 1. The applicant organisation's trade register extract (max. 3 months old)
 2. The applicant organisation's two most recent financial statements. If at least three months have passed since the end of the last financial period, provide also the most recent profit and loss account and balance sheet.
 - If the financial statements are not available, please attach the most recent balance sheet and profit & loss statement and the CVs of the project's key persons and the project team.
 - If the applicant organisation is part of a group of companies, the two most recent financial statements of the group's parent company (showing both the parent company's and the group's financial statements) should also be attached.
- The Basic Information Sheet will be submitted to the e-services of the Ministry for Foreign Affairs, where it will generally be registered within 1–3 days. Once it has been registered, the Ministry for Foreign Affairs ("Ministry") will send the applicant an acknowledgement of receipt via the e-service.

Basic information sheet, received notifications

- Received notifications can be found on the e-service as follows:
 - Click on the “Created cases” dropdown menu and select “Draft applications”, then click on the application you want to view.
 - New notifications are also displayed on the e-service’s front page (the correct organisation must be selected).
- If the Basic Information Sheet does not contain all the required information, the Ministry will request in the acknowledgement of receipt that the applicant organisation supplement it. The Basic Information Sheet can be supplemented by filling in the appropriate form on the e-service. Instructions on how to submit a notification of amendment can be found on the following page.

Basic information sheet, supplementing

- The Basic Information Sheet can be supplemented directly via the “Business partnership support” menu (section 5), or otherwise by doing the following:
 1. Click on the “Created cases” dropdown menu and select “Draft applications”, then choose the Basic Information Sheet you want to supplement and click on the name of the document.
